GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS SIMMONS TO SOCIAL WORK CERTIFICATION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Emily B. Simmons of Wilson to the North Carolina Social Work Certification and Licensure Board.

Simmons is a care coordinator with Wilson Medical Center. She is a member of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and the N.C. Chapter of NASW. Simmons received her Bachelor's degree in sociology from Meredith College and her Master's of Social Work from UNC-Chapel Hill.

The board regulates the practice of social work through credential reviews, examinations, standards of experience, professional reference and continuing education. The board has seven members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
